

CALL FOR PAPERS CISS '10

44th Annual Conference on
Information Sciences and Systems
March 17, 18 & 19, 2010

Department of Electrical Engineering, Princeton University and Technical Co-sponsorship with

IEEE Information Theory Society

Authors are invited to submit previously unpublished papers describing theoretical advances, applications, and ideas in the fields of information theory (including application to biological sciences); communication, networking; signal, image, and video processing; systems and control; learning and statistical inference.

Papers, requiring approximately 30 minutes for presentation; will be reproduced in full (up to six pages) in the conference proceedings. No short papers will be accepted.

Electronic summaries in Adobe PDF format, and 2-3 keywords must be submitted by January 6, 2010. Summaries should be of sufficient detail and length to permit careful reviewing. Authors will be notified of acceptance no later than February 5, 2010. Final manuscripts of accepted papers are to be submitted in PDF format no later than February 26, 2010. These are firm deadlines that will permit the distribution of a CD containing the conference proceedings at the Conference.
